

Covecastles resort was badly damaged. Architectural structures remain intact but severe damage was done to the windows, woodwork, interior etc. Rebuilding will take months. Local management and owners are currently discussing the best course of action. An update will be provided if and when more information is available.
None of our staff members have been badly hurt.

Eddy Loomans - Project Coordinator - Covecastles Resort
PO BOX 248 - Shoal Bay West - Anguilla BWI